THE ULTIMATE INTERNET “MLM SPONSORING MACHINE”

97% Failure Rate In MLM? HORSE HOCKEY!

Here's what's real: Brace yourself for what's about to go down as the BIGGEST HOME BASED BUSINESS REVOLUTION in world history, engineered by none other than Top Network Marketing Geniuses Like Yourself...

How are you involved?

It's a crafty "time-tested" business model just clever enough that most Network Marketers won't even see it happen... until it's too late.

The short of it is, every second that goes by, top network marketers are using this strategy to secretly suck wealth out of the internet while the rest struggle to survive.

Dear Network Marketer,

What I'm about to reveal to you in this free special report is my blueprint to growing your MLM Business online using the power of the internet and attraction marketing to do it automatically 24/7/365.

I'm not kidding...

Never before in history has there been a “level playing field” for entrepreneurs to start a business from their kitchen table with nothing more than a laptop and a couple of hundred bucks (If that...)

With the internet, it is now possible to reach millions and millions of potential customers for your business, and the only thing stopping you from doing it...
KNOWLEDGE...

So Here's What You Need To Know...

“How The Average Joe Is Able To Compete Against Fortune 500 Companies Without Spending Their Life Savings On Expensive Mass Media Advertising”

A social explosion is currently underway with the growing number of niche social networks waiting to be monetized by “smart” marketers who understand the simple concept of attraction marketing.

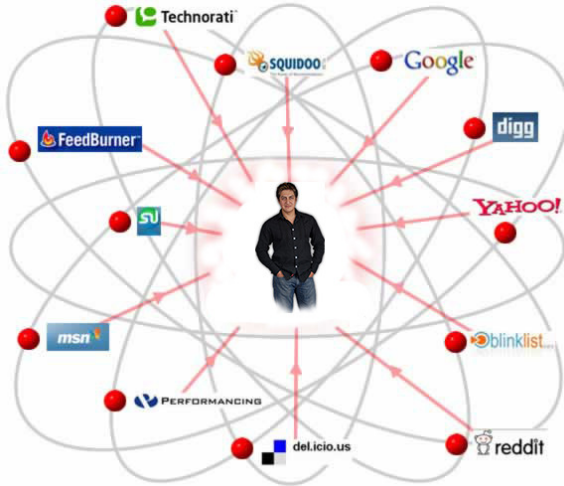

The fastest way to get a business going is to build “awareness” in the market place. This requires your business mission statement to reach millions and millions of people.

But isn't that expensive?

It used to be that mass media advertising was expensive and only reserved to the biggest money-loaded companies who could run any mom and pop shop out of business. But times have changed. Mass marketing is no longer found in newspapers or TV ads... unless you don't know any better and have tons of money to throw away.

When you combine the traffic from social networks, social bookmarking sites, video sites, podcasting sites, and other “secret” traffic getting online billboards, you get a massive crowd of hungry consumers waiting to buy what you have to offer.

The power of the internet allows you to replace your “human self” for your “virtual self” and sell to people automatically in the absence of your presence.

This is very simple.

First, you must write down your sales message and put it in the form of a squeeze page.

This is the page where you filter out qualified prospects for your business. You will get the occasional I-am-too-smart-for-you lurker who just wants to know what you are doing.

They are copy cats and I'll teach you how to convert 9 out 10 of them into happy customers...

The only purpose of having a squeeze page is to capture an email address. Now, you must treat this email address like a pot of gold and be sure to only send out information that is useful to the recipient.

This is the first step in converting those who didn't input their "primary" email address into the form.

The squeeze page and the emails will be linked to your sales pages. A sales page is nothing more than your sales message in print. Whatever you are currently telling your customers to buy from you (as long as it's working) will go in the sales letter.

This is what I call your "Marketing Hub".

This is where the money is made. It is the closest thing to printing money on demand that I've come across.

How It All Works.....

Once you have your marketing system setup, your goal is to spread your message around the web.

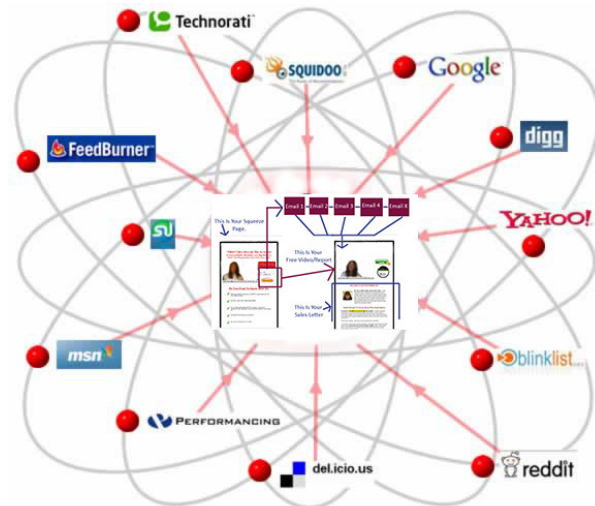

This is much like the land rush that happened in the 1800's. There are so many places and so many keywords to target, there is virtually endless possibilities and places where you can go and claim a piece of "internet real estate".

This is the basic business model being used by top marketers right now and will continue to work for a long time.

To find out more information on how you too can start building your business online and join the thousands of network marketers who are having more success than they can possibly handle, then lock your door, shut your cell phone off, turn off your email & facebook (and YouTube) and read the MLM Downline Building Report....

To Your Success,
